MASSACHUSETTS COMPUTER USING EDUCATORS

Why join?

- Our annual conference, held in the fall at a hotel site, have become major professional development events, attracting a large number of exhibitors and a rich schedule of workshops. 1600 educators attend.
- on Cue, MassCUE's journal, produced 3 times during the school year, is now 30+ pages and provides an excellent forum for exchange of information. Company members are entitled to a discount on their advertising fees.
- MassCUE's monthly calendar announces MassCUE meetings and other important inexpensive or free technology related meetings and events with an educational intent.
- Special Interest Groups (SIGs) meeting regularly all over the state from Cape Cod to the Berkshires, provide ongoing opportunities for exchange with educators in the same geographic area or with shared special interests.
- Company members are listed prominently in MassCUE's annual membership directory, the only statewide directory of educational technology leaders and educators.
- Our sponsorship of the annual Kids and Technology day at the State House brings home to legislators the enthusiasm of teachers and students alike for the new learning experiences that technology makes possible. MassCUE's Kids & Technology Days have led to 3+ million dollars of technology funding for Massachusetts schools.
- As the Massachusetts affiliate of the International Society for Technology in Education (ISTE), MassCUE helps to develop and support national and international computing policy for education.

Our Mission

As a grassroots organization of technology using educators, our mission is to:

- promote new visions of teaching and learning.
- transform the educational environment
- support professional growth of Massachusetts educators
- provide teachers with the tools to raise a community of lifelong learners
- influence educational decision-makers
- build a community of teachers helping teachers

Now is the time to join or renew your membership in MassCUE!

Your company can have a year's membership in an organization that is helping teachers help students prepare for their future.

We are looking to find new ways to use the combined expertise of the MassCUE membership to provide training opportunities for teachers, outreach to parents, legislators, and the business community, and to foster partnering arrangements with business.

Exciting times are ahead. Don't miss out! Please fill in the enrollment form today. Together we can make a difference.

Please call or write if you have any questions about the direction of MassCUE or if you have any ideas for the organization. Call, fax, email, or write:
